

Duncker & Humblot

RETURN POLICY FOR BOOKSHOPS AND PUBLISHERS

(Last update: 27 June 2014)

Returns require the prior approval of Duncker & Humblot. The approval must be enclosed with the return shipment. The credit note is issued at the respective purchase price of the customer.

Returns must be in a perfect, saleable condition; copies with damage or traces of use cannot be credited or can only be credited with a maximum of 30%. Please ensure appropriate packaging. Simple paper and cardboard bags as well as padded bags are not sufficient.

Please state the invoice number, date and ISBN on the return delivery note.

In the case of new editions, the previous edition can be returned up to 6 weeks after publication of the new edition.

All titles of the series “Duncker & Humblot reprints” are excluded from the right of return.

Send all returns to:

Duncker & Humblot GmbH
Carl-Heinrich-Becker-Weg 9
12165 Berlin
Germany

Contact:

Ms. Heike Nahnsen

Phone: +49 30 790006-11

E-Mail: nahnsen@duncker-humblot.de