Guidelines for Authors

Sociologus publishes original papers that are based on empirical research and promote theoretical developments in the field of social anthropology and related disciplines. Papers submitted for publication are normally reviewed by two outside referees.

Articles should be submitted as an electronic file to:
redaktion@sociologus.de

Book reviews should be sent to our Reviews Editors:
Dr. Claudia Liebelt, claudia.liebelt@uni-bayreuth.de

Please use the following address for mail correspondence:

Switzerland

Manuscripts should not exceed 55,000 characters, including spaces, notes, references, and the abstracts.

Please follow these style guidelines:

References should appear in the text, for example, (Macron 1999: 203-67). If more than one work is cited, separate authors with a comma: (Elwert 1971, 1982, Piette 2009). For two joint authors, use (Meyer and Smith 2 1975). For three, use (Müller, Meier and Schmidt 2008). For more than three authors, use (Redfield et al. 1975).

For oral sources the interviewee's name and the date are given, for archive sources the reference.
